Markets

Global equity markets were muted, as the fear of inflation debate continues to gain ground; Japanese stocks rose to a 30-year high during the week while Saudi Arabia's stock market crossed the 9,000 mark for the first time since Jul 2019. The GBP hit USD 1.40, a near three-year high, given the pace of its vaccination program amid lockdown while the Turkish lira continues to rally (+6% in 2021). Brent oil price topped USD 65 (given the deep freeze in Texas) and saw some profit-taking, gold price fell and copper price surged to its highest in more than 9 years while Bitcoin hit a market cap of USD 1trn on Fri (chart on global asset performance: tmsnrt.rs/2yaDPgn).

Weekly % changes for last week (18-19 Feb) from 11 Feb (regional) and 12 Feb (international).

US/Americas:

- US industrial production inched up by 0.9% mom in Jan, rising for the 4th consecutive month, after Dec's uptick of 1.3%. Capacity utilization increased to 75.6% from 74.9% in Dec.
- Retail sales in the US increased by 5.3% mom in Jan (Dec: -1%), the most in seven months, thanks in part to the stimulus cheques of up to USD 600. Excluding autos, retail sales grew by 5.9% mom, while sales at non-store retailers (including e-commerce) surged by 11%.
- US PPI inched up by 1.3% mom in Jan (Dec: 0.3%), recording the largest advance since the index began in Dec 2009. Excluding food and energy, PPI grew by 0.8% from 0.5% in Dec.
- Building permits in the US surged by 10.4% yoy to a seasonally adjusted 1.881mn in Jan this year: this was the strongest gain since May 2006, thanks to a jump in permits for buildings with 5 units or more (+28% to 557k). Housing starts declined by 6% to 1.58mn.
- Existing home sales inched up by 0.6% mom to 6.69mn units in Jan; lack of supply continues with just a 1.9-month supply available at the current sales pace (versus a 3 month supply a year ago). This has been pushing prices higher, with the median price of an existing home sold in Jan at $303,900, up 1% yoy.
- Markit manufacturing flash PMI slowed down to 58.5 in Feb (Jan: 59.2) while services business activity reading improved by 0.6 points to 58.9 – the highest reading since Mar 2015.
- Initial jobless claims increased to 861k in the week ended Feb 12 from an upwardly revised 848k the prior week, with the 4-week average slowing to 833.25k. Continuing claims slowed to 4.494mn in the week ended Feb 5 from 4.56mn the week before.

Europe:

- GDP in the eurozone declined by 0.6% qoq and 5% yoy in Q4, upwardly revised vs preliminary estimates (-0.7% qoq and -5.1%) though worse compared to Q3's rebound of 12.4% qoq. Overall, the first estimate for GDP in 2020 stood at a 6.8% decline.
- German ZEW survey showed an upward surge in economic sentiment to 71.2 in Feb (Jan: 61.8), largely due to expectations of a recovery in consumption and retail trade in line with the vaccine rollout while the current situation reading was more subdued, slipping to -67.2 from the previous month's -66.4. The ZEW economic sentiment in the eurozone jumped to 69.6 in Feb (Jan: 58.3). Additionally, inflation expectations also increased sharply.
- The flash Markit manufacturing PMI in Germany inched up to 60.6 in Feb, following Jan's 57.1 reading. However, services slipped to 45.9 from 46.7 in Jan given the continued containment measures. The survey results also showed average charges for goods and services rising at the quickest rate since Aug 2019.
- Eurozone's flash manufacturing PMI increased to a 36-month high of 57.7 in Feb (Jan: 50.8) while services PMI, in contrast, fell to 44.7 (Jan: 45.4). Composite PMI remained below-50 for the 4th consecutive month, though nudging up to 48.1 in Feb (Jan: 47.8).
- Employment in the eurozone increased by 0.3% qoq in Q4, easing from Q3's 1% rise.
- Trade surplus in the eurozone widened to EUR 29.2bn in Dec (Nov: EUR 25.7bn): exports to the rest of the world grew by 2.3% yoy – the first increase in exports since Feb 20 and intra-EU trade inched up by 0.9% to EUR 148.7bn. For the full year 2020, exports declined by 9.2% and imports by 10.8%.
- Industrial production in the eurozone slipped by 1.6% mom and 0.8% yoy in Dec (Nov: 2.6% mom and -0.6% yoy), with production of capital goods and non-durable consumer goods down by 3.1% and 0.6% respectively.

- Inflation in the UK rose by 0.7% yoy in Jan (Dec: 0.6%), with price rising across many categories including furniture, transport, hotels and food. PPI core output and retail price index both inched up by 1.4% yoy (Dec: +1.1% and +1.2% respectively).
- The impact of UK's third lockdown was visible in the Jan retail sales numbers: it plunged by 5.9% yoy and 8.2% mom, following Dec's positive readings of 3.1% yoy and 0.4% mom respectively. Clothing sales were down 35% mom, household goods sales dropped almost 20% while online spending accounted for a record 35.2% of sales.
- UK manufacturing PMI ticked up to 54.9 in Feb, following Jan's 54.1 reading, thanks to an improvement in new order growth. Services PMI stabilized to 49.7 from 39.5 in Jan though temporary closures lead to weaker sales volumes.

Asia Pacific:

- Japan GDP grew at an annualized 12.7% in Q4 (Q3: 22.7%): growth was up by 0.2% yoy and 3% qoq (Q3: 1.2% and 5.3%). Q4 growth was supported by domestic demand (+2%), private consumption (+2.2%) and net exports (+1%). GDP declined by 4.8% in full year 2020, the first contraction since the 2009 global financial crisis when growth plunged by 5.7%.
- Final data on industrial production in Japan showed a drop by 1% mom and 2.6% yoy in Dec (Nov: -3.2% yoy).
- Exports from Japan grew by 6.4% yoy in Jan (Dec: 2%), posting the sharpest growth since Oct 2018, led by an increase in exports to China (+37.5%) and Asia (+19.4%). Imports declined for the 21st month in a row by 9.5% yoy (Dec: -11.6%), thereby moving the trade balance into a deficit of JPY 323.9bn from a surplus JPY 749.6bn the month before.
- Japan's core machinery orders unexpectedly increased by 5.2% mom and 11.8% yoy in Dec (Nov: 1.5% mom and -11.3%).

- Inflation in Japan declined by 0.6% yoy in Jan (Dec: -1.2%). Excluding energy and food, prices were up by 0.1%, after 3 straight months of decline including Dec's 0.4% drop.
- Japan's composite PMI inched up to 47.6 in Feb (Jan: 47.1), thanks to a stabilisation in new export orders (after 26 months of sub-50 readings) and an expansion in employment levels.
- India's WPI inflation rose to an 11-month high in Jan, up 2.03% following Dec's 2.3% uptick.
- Trade deficit in India narrowed to USD 14.54bn in Jan (Dec: USD 14.75bn), as exports (+6.16%) grew faster vis-à-vis imports (+2.03%).
- GDP in Singapore grew by 3.8% qoq in Q4 (Q3: 9%) though contracting 2.4% yoy from the previous quarter's 5.8% dip. The economy contracted by 5.4% in 2020 – the first annual contraction since 2001.

Bottom line: The latest PMI numbers in Europe continue to highlight the diverging trends between the manufacturing sector and the lockdown-hit services sector; input prices are ticking up, bringing to the forefront discussions on inflationary pressures. Separately, the IIF revealed a record-high global debt of USD 281trn in 2020, which is expected to rise further in 2021. Government debt, which accounted for more than half the increase last year, topped 105% of GDP (2019: 88%). Debt was one of the key discussion points at the G7 Summit last week, where President Biden announced an extra USD 4bn for Covax (to aid vaccine delivery).
