Independent economists were not surprised by the IMF's positivity. Nasser Saidi, former chief economist at the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC), told Arab News: "The country has been proactive in rolling out a spate of reforms despite the pandemic and lower oil prices. The public health system has proven to be resilient."

Saidi, the former DIFC chief economist, said: "Saudi Arabia's fiscal prudence has to be complimented, in addition to the efficient tapping of debt markets and structuring of key energy infra structuring to finance deficits."

According to Saidi, the pace of continued growth depends on global oil markets and the future pattern of the virus, but the signs are as good as the IMF's conclusions.

"Saudi Arabia's growth prospects with continued macroeconomic stability and prudent fiscal stance will encourage increased domestic and foreign investment in addition to housing investment and consumption by households," he said.
