

Weekly Economic Commentary, 29 Nov 2020

Markets

Equity markets are riding an optimism wave, with the MSCI's main world index touching a record high: gains are linked to news of vaccines, its production and distribution plans (even as global cases crossed 60mn) while US President-elect Biden began the presidency transition. Regional markets were mostly higher, with Dubai leading the gains (+4.5%) while Abu Dhabi gained for the 9th consecutive week. Among currencies, the dollar has fallen more than 2% this month (global FX rates: tmsnr.rs/2egbfVh). Oil prices ended the week up 7-8% on hopes of a rebound in oil demand, rising almost 30% this month, while gold price fell to its lowest since Jul.

Weekly % changes for last week (27-28 Nov) from 19 Nov (regional) and 20 Nov (international).

Europe:

- Germany's GDP grew by 8.5% qoq in Q3 (flash estimate: 8.2%; Q2: -9.8%) though in yoy terms, growth was down by 4% (Q2: -4.3%). Later last week, Germany extended its "lockdown light" restriction measures to Dec 20th.
- Germany's manufacturing PMI declined to 57.9 in Nov (Oct: 58.2). Services PMI slipped further below-50, to a 6-month low of 46.2 this month (Oct: 49.5). Together, the composite index moved down by 3 points to 52 – the weakest expansion since recovery began in Jul.
- Eurozone manufacturing PMI slowed to a 3-month low of 53.6 in Nov (Oct: 54.8) while the services PMI plummeted to a 6-month low of 41.3 from the previous month's 46.9, bringing the composite PMI below-50 to 45.1 (Oct: 50), another 6-month low. France's composite PMI dived to 39.9 from 47.5 – the steepest drop since May.
- Germany's Ifo business climate index fell to 90.7 in Nov (Oct: 92.5), with manufacturing the lone bright spot as the service sector fell back into negative territory for the first time since Jun. Current assessment edged down by 0.4 points to 90 while expectations declined to 91.5 from 94.7 the month before.
- EU Economic Sentiment fell sharply by 3.6 points to 86.6 in Nov, the first time since sentiment fell during the first Covid19 wave, with employment expectations falling for the second months in a row (-3.3 points to 87.2). The flash consumer confidence index was down by 2.2 points to -18.7 in Nov (far below the long-term average of -10.6).
- Manufacturing PMI in the UK accelerated to 55.2 in Nov – the joint highest level since 2018 - while services PMI declined to 45.8 from 51.4 the month before. The composite PMI slipped below 50, for the first time since Jun, clocking in 47.4 in Nov (Oct: 52.1).

Asia Pacific:

- GDP in India declined by 7.5% in Jul-Sep this year, as the country moved into recessionary territory though it improved from the 23.9% plunge recorded in Q2. Manufacturing industry surprisingly picked up by 0.6% after a massive 39.3% drop in the prior quarter; agriculture sector growth remained unchanged at 3.4%. Worrisome among the numbers is the dip in private consumption by 11.5%.

- Fiscal deficit in India stood at INR 9.53trn (USD 128.9bn) in Apr-Oct: this was 126.7% of the budgeted target for the full fiscal year (to end in Mar 2021).
- Inflation in Japan's Tokyo fell by 0.7% yoy in Nov (Oct: -0.3%). Excluding food and energy, prices were lower by 0.2%.
- Japan's manufacturing PMI declined to 47.6 in Nov (Oct: 48.7) and composite index dimmed by 1 point to 47, as demand conditions weakened, new businesses fell for a 10th consecutive month and export orders dropped.
- Singapore GDP contracted by 5.8% yoy in Q3, while growing by 35.4% qoq (Q2: 13.3% yoy). The Ministry of Trade and Industry estimates growth to shrink between 6-6.5% this year.
- Industrial production in Singapore plunged by 19% mom – the first fall in five months – and by 0.9% yoy (Sep: 25.6%) – the fastest drop in nearly a decade. Excluding biomedical manufacturing, Oct's fall was even steeper, at 2.7%.
- Inflation in Singapore slipped by 0.2% yoy in Oct, from a flat reading in Sep: food prices increased by 1.7% while costs fell for housing and utilities (-0.3% vs -0.7%) and clothing (-4.3% vs -4.6%) among others.

Bottom line: This week sees the OPEC+ meeting, where member countries are likely to delay plans to raise output by at least 3 months; a last-minute meeting of OPEC+ ministers was organized this weekend to discuss the upcoming decision. Meanwhile, the last stretch of Brexit discussions continue ahead of the end of the transition period on Dec 31st. As practical aspects of the vaccines – production and distribution - are being sorted out, there is some hope from Europe's less severe lockdowns this time round: R (the average number of new people who contract the virus from each infected person) fell to an average 0.9 in the week after restrictions were imposed (from 1.1 before), meaning new infections would fall by 21% vs rising by 36% (read more: "Why Europe's second, less severe lockdowns are working").
